

Kikatiti  Our Savior's
Unity in Christ

February 2010

Dear Friends,

The good news that was reported and foreshadowed in the January TIMES has been fulfilled. Currently, the weather is hot in Kikatiti, but apparently conducive to farming. The money to support primary school lunches has been sent. The YES Scholarship Appeal has surpassed our goal of supporting 62 students, and by the time you are reading this, our donors should have received information on their sponsored students and begun the process of getting to know each other. God is so good!

I have received several e-mail messages from both Elirehema and Tareto (our two guests from Kikatiti). It is clear that they both hold you in their hearts and continue to be committed to growing our partnership as brothers and sisters in Christ. So, as I thought about what to write this month, I decided you would enjoy hearing from them. . .

"I wish you a Prosperous New Year.

I will try to be very standby to respond as much as I can to many things that will help in making our Partnership grow in Christ's unity. Let's pray for each other.

Your Brother in Christ,

Elirehema Akyoo"

"Asante dada (thank you sister) for updates. I have very light work as you have a heavy part of it. I know what you are doing for us over here. You are planning and working for the benefit of poor families of Kikatiti. We see the hands and feet of Jesus through you. God's blessings to you. (Tareto is referring here to the YES Scholarship Appeal.)

I am also happy to tell you that I have been appointed to be the Diocesan Education officer from January 2010. I am responsible for all colleges and secondary schools in the Diocese. I am still heading Kikatiti Secondary School.

Thank you dada and the congregation at large for sending funds for primary school food. We hope to have a good number of pupils attending lessons.

Tafadhali dada (please sister) send my love greetings to all the congregation pastors, congregation, and Mr. Mark the congregation president.

In Him,

Tareto Nassari"

The way you have responded to this partnership has been nothing less than miraculous. You are giving the gift of hope and joy and unity, all out of your love for Jesus Christ. Keep it up dear friends! Let us continue to love and pray for one another.

Isaiah 12:3-4 Give thanks to the Lord, call upon his name;
Make known his deeds among the nations, proclaim that his name is exalted.

Be Blessed,

Ruthann Rohde