Bible Connection

Read Acts 2: 1 – 13.

Briefly (in your own words) re-tell what is going on in this story.

Why did some people not believe what they had seen?

In Acts, as well as other places of the Bible, the Spirit is talked about as though it's wind. Thinking of the recent devastation from hurricanes, do you think the power of wind is a good metaphor for the Spirit? Why or why not?

Do you think that even today, some might think the "words of the Holy Spirit" might be nonsense? Why or why not?
