Closing Questions

1. Many Christians do not believe that the creeds of the church are necessary. They believe that the only thing needed is the Bible. How do you think the creeds can work together with the Bible to help guide the church and believers?

2. The people of the ancient world believed in many gods. Some people today say that the monotheism (belief in one God) of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam is out of step with the modern world, where people believe in many different truths. How can the creeds help the church address this issue?

3. Why do you think creeds are important for the church?
